Canadian Nisei Recently Admitted Into U. S. By Passage Of Private Bill Was Vancouver Girl

Mrs. Toshiko Keyser, who on Oct. 19, was permitted to enter the United States by the passage of a private bill approving her entry for permanent residence is the former Toshiko Miyashita, a 20-year-old Canadian Nisei girl born in Vancouver.

She is at present residing in Glenwood, Alberta, where her father, Thel Miyashita, is engaged in farming. It is believed that her plans now are to enter the United States shortly to establish a home with her husband.

Her husband, Donald Elwood Keyser, is a native of Pennsylvania. While serving in the United States Army overseas in Japan, he met his present wife who was then employed by the Occupation Forces as a clerk typist in Osaka. They were married in Japan, and in April of this year, Mrs. Keyser returned to Canada; but because she is of Japanese ancestry even though a Canadian citizen, she was not eligible to enter the United States for permanent residence.

Just Passing Through

Was a Male Fullback. . .

This is the confession of Allis-[illegible], gridiron hero extraordinary. Triple-threat, all-star boy, that was me. Why I was the [illegible]shingest tackler, the hardest running back, the passingest [fl]inger since Sammy Baugh, and the best kicking half since the days of Popeye's Lummox (of course, nobody, not even Joe Krol can outkick the fabulous Lummox). And my blocking. . . Well, anyways, I was a great triple-threat football star, a potential All-American.

But here is my epitaph, my obituary. . .

Shanghai'd

The coach picks me out of the proverbial nowhere. I was standing on the steps of good old . . . High, calmly minding my own business when up comes this coach with murder in his eyes. Grabs me by the collar and says, "We need material", and hoists me off in the direction of the football field. What could I do, the coach was big, powerful. But I guess he was short of football players. After all, he had to put out twelve men on the field.

He throws me into a suit, complete with helmet and boots. I [illegible] this regalia. The suit was [illegible] too big for me. The shoulder pads dangled over my [illegible] frame, the pants kept slipping down and every minute I had to hitch them up. I peered out from the helmet, my eyes [illegible] a bewildered, hazy-eyed look at the world. Ah! the sweater! There was a big letter in the front and then I was ready to die for the good old alma [illegible].

Vancouver Story

Only Few Instances of Discrimination

VANCOUVER, B. C. — At a discussion held on Oct. 22 at the Roosevelt Hotel, it was brought out that although there are few instances of discrimination, on the whole Japanese Canadians now residing here are being accepted as fellow citizens.

These first arrivals back to the coast, aware of their responsibility, are doing their utmost to prove that they are good citizens and thereby paving the way for other possible returnees to the Pacific coast.

In particular reference to employment, it was generally agreed that there was hardly any case of discrimination, but it was felt there was reticence on the part of some employers to hire Japanese Canadians as yet. The working Nisei are getting along with their fellow workers and they have become members of their respective unions.

The main purpose of the discussion which was attended by about 20 persons, was to study ways and means of forming a JCCA chapter in Vancouver. The majority feeling was that they favored its formation but at the same time it was decided to defer the actual organizing until a few more discussions have taken place in order to hear the opinion of all Japanese Canadians now calling Vancouver their home.

The next meeting is to take place in the middle of November. All Japanese residents of Vancouver are urged to attend this meeting, the time and place yet to be announced, in order to give their opinion as well as their support.

JCCA Directory Reveals 1,071 Japanese in Man. Mostly In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Man. — Only about one out of nine Japanese now making their home in the easternmost prairie province live outside of Greater Winnipeg, according to the Manitoba Japanese Directory recently compiled by the Manitoba JCCA.

There are a total of 1,071 Japanese in Manitoba representing 288 heads of families. This latter figure includes single men living alone. Out of this total of 288 families, only 32 live outside of the greater Winnipeg area.

Also included in the directory are 70 telephones listed under these names.

Noted Nisei Professor Judge In Jazz Contest

CHICAGO. — The judges of the Down Beat Magazine contest for the best word to replace the [illegible] "jazz", decided upon "crewcut" as the most logical substitution, if one had to be [illegible].

Canadian-born S. I. Hayakawa, semanticist and professor of English at the Illinois Institute of Technology and who is the author of "Language In Thought and Action", editor of "ETC: A Review of General Semantics", and a noted [illegible], was one of the four judges.

Other judges were bandleader Stan Kenton and two English professors, Marshall Stearns and John Lucas.

26 winners who live in 22 cities scattered in 12 States and one in Holland were chosen by the four men. The winner, Father [illegible] of Halewelen, who received a pickle of Steam, thought of the word "crewcut", while seeking the opposite of "long hair".

$4,000 Is Goal Of Toronto Drive

The Toronto JCCA Financial Drive canvassing will begin on Nov. 13 and end on Nov. 27. The objective for the campaign has been set for $4,000, which will meet the Toronto chapter's national, provincial and local commitments.

Out of the $4,000, $2,350 goes to the national treasury, $450 is for the Ontario JCCA budget, $500 allotment goes towards social welfare of the local Japanese community, $300 for the Issei division of the local JCCA, and $400 for the Nisei division. Any oversubscription of the quota will be added to the social welfare allotment to care for destitute cases in the Japanese community, to aid hospitalized people in need, and to pay for other welfare projects.

Canvassers are still required for the fund drive and anyone who is willing to volunteer his or her services is requested to contact the National JCCA office at PL. 1253.

A canvassers' meeting will be held at the Canadian Legion Hall, 22 College St., at 2 p.m. on Nov. 6.

Top Japanese Film Star Arrives In Hawaii To Visit Hollywood After Stay In Honolulu

HONOLULU, T. H. — Hollywood-bound after she spends three weeks in Honolulu, Japan's first postwar talent export arrived at the capital of Hawaii recently complete with 10 trunks of 40 kimonos.

Miss Kinuyo Tanaka, the "Bette Davis of Japan", is the first motion picture star permitted to leave Japan since the occupation.

After she stepped off a Pan American Stratocruiser, she had breakfast with ice-cream as a starter, something she had been waiting to try.

The International Theatrical Co. of Honolulu is sponsoring the tour of Miss Tanaka who is the 1947 and 1948 winner of the Japanese equivalent of the academy award.

[illegible] to a Japanese doll, she [illegible] pounds and stands 5 feet 1 without her "geta" or wooden sandals. She wants to learn about Hollywood and particularly about makeup and is curious about the American way of living, especially for women. But for her 42 years, she doesn't use much makeup. She took the role of a 16-year-old in a recent film.

Miss Tanaka made a gift of Japanese dolls to the governor and she placed a wreath at the war memorial in front of the territorial building.

Nisei One Of Editors On Harvard Monthly

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — It was revealed recently that a 1944 Nisei honor graduate of the University of Denver, Colorado, has been named as one of the editors of the Harvard Law Review.

Sho Sato is the first Japanese American to receive the honor of being on the monthly Harvard publication.

The Harvard Law School Record in reporting the Nisei appointment, also said that for the first time in the 123-year history of the institution, it will admit women to the school starting next September.

THE NATIONAL JCCA CONFERENCE

The time for speculation is over. Day after tomorrow, provincial delegates from British Columbia to Quebec will convene in Lethbridge, Alberta, to decide the future of the Japanese Canadian Citizens Association.

It is needless to point out that there is still much to be done, that which only a national organization such as the JCCA can undertake. On the other hand, its maintenance is costly and is considered in many quarters as beyond the continued support of the 20,000 Japanese Canadians.

A compromise is retrenchment, a curtailment of its work and its activities.

Which course is to be followed? We will know the answer by the end of this week.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

Moving into the next to the last month of the calendar, our thoughts are directed in earnest towards planning the annual end-of-the-year edition. With less than two months to go before the long-haired man in red whips his antlered team into action and picks our pocketbooks, we have to get down to preparing the way for the bumper issue.

This work has to be sandwiched in between our regular twice weekly issues and from now on in, there will be no let-up in our feverish efforts to beat the night-before-Christmas deadline. Our ulcerous temperament will worsen, our leisure time will completely disappear, and we'll flounder in paper work.

But if any sympathetic soul would consider helping in alleviating our distress, then we'd like to ask that person to contribute some literary efforts towards our Christmas edition. We would like to have contributions from everybody from all parts of Canada, and we certainly would appreciate your help along this line in making the Christmas number one which everyone will enjoy.

Next week, of all things, is National Cheese Week. Sponsored by the National Dairy Council of Canada, the idea is to make Canadians more cheese-conscious. Apparently, Canadians aren't too fond of cheese, eating about four pounds per person annually whereas in other countries consumption is about ten pounds.

Personally, we are the most rabid of cheese-haters. We never indulge in partaking of this jaundiced lactic castoff and perhaps it is our absolute abstinence which aids in maintaining a low Canadian consumption of Gorgonzola, Chedder, and other varieties of rat food.

Nor do we find that we are in an exclusive category. A very high number of Niseis consider cheese as undesirable. Though we've never asked why this is so, it is a fact that an unusually high proportion of Niseis won't touch it.

If anyone organizes a cheese-haters' club, then we want to take out lifetime membership. Though we realize what the National Dairy Council means when they talk about the nutritive value of cheese, we are not too anxious to see it on our table.

And somebody has all the luck. Across the street an eleven-year old girl wins $15,000 in the Irish Sweep. We can't even win the consolation prize in a club raffle.

Your Legal Problems

Binding Agreements

Question: I wish to buy a certain article in a store window which has been advertised at a certain price. It is a small store and they refuse to sell it to me. Can I force them to sell it to me?

Answer: This is a very interesting question. The answer is you cannot force them to sell it to you. The mere showing of an article does not constitute any binding agreement.

Question: I bought a house, paid the deposit. But now the person selling the house can get a better price so he will not sell it to me. Can I compel him to sell it to me?

Answer: Yes, you made a binding agreement and legally you can force him to sell the house to you.

Question: I have been married for 25 years. Ten years ago, my husband disappeared and I have not heard from him since. I have made every effort to find him, but have been unsucessful. I now wish to remarry. Can I do so?

Answer: I would think you could. After such a disappearance, for more than seven years, the law presumes death. If you should remarry you would not be committing bigamy even if your husband should appear. However, your second marriage would not be legal and any children born out of this marriage would be considered illegitimate.

PASSING THRU

spurted out of his hands. It bounced crazily around and then took a sudden hop into my shaking hands. I dimly heard somebody yell, "run, run". So I ran over for a touchdown! And that was the game. We won 6-0 after Nolnowowitz kicked the convert. The coach took me out of the game and told me to rest.

The Game

The next day was THE game. It was our traditional rivals from across the creek, the stadium was packed, all of the 80 seats were filled with screaming fans. The headlines had written, "... HIGH HAS SECRET THREAT". The coach keeps me under wraps until the last quarter. We were losing by one touchdown when he hustles me into the game. Quarterback gives me the ball on a shovel-play and I put my head down and headed toward the line. I saw a burly left tackle and an even burlier right guard come charging toward me. I closed my eyes but I saw stars. I saw my girl. I saw everything.

That's all I remember. The next thing I know, I was in hospital, the doc had just told me that my football days were over.

But in that brief and fleeting moment I was the highest star in the firmament. I tasted the nectar of the Olympic gods. I WAS a triple-threat player. I was the runningest back, the [illegible] passer, the ....

人工授精兒生まる!!

安藤博士の施術に各界から是非論

妻は完全な身體なのに夫の性的欠陥があるためどうしても子寶に惠まれないというある夫婦の熱心な依頼をうけ、この方面の權威者慶大醫學部產婦人科部長安藤畫一博士(六五)は昨年六月から日本ではじめての人工授精の實驗にとりかゝつた。すなわち夫婦が承諾の上で、お互いに一面識もないある男の子種をもらいうけ人工的に妻の体内に注入したところ、みごとに姙娠しその後順調な經過をたどつて月が滿ち八月下旬三キロ二〇〇グラムという優秀な女兒を分娩、こゝに文字通り人造人間の誕生が實現し、當の夫婦は非常な喜びに包まれ近く安藤教授ほか關係者を招いて祝宴を開くと言い、同教授のところへは、新しい希望者がぞくぞく押しかけ、避妊樂大流行とは正に逆を行く現象を呈しているが、一方この實驗のことが傳わると同じ醫學者仲間はもちろん法律家、評論家宗教家などの各界に大きなショックを與え贊否兩論入り亂れるセンセーションをまき起すにいたつた

養子より合理的

まず當の立役者安藤教授を品川區五反田五の一〇八の自邸に訪ねば大要次のように經過と信念を述べた

夫婦の間に子がない場合、これまではあきらめてしまうか養子をもらうか、第二の方法としてはその原因が夫が性行爲のできない場合は、夫婦間の人工授精をやつてきた。ところがその夫がいわゆる全く子種を持たない場合、しかも熱心に子供をほしがるという時、その夫婦が納得すれば他の男性のものをもらいうけて子供を與えてやるというのは醫學の立場からすれば不姙症を治す醫療行爲でありむしろ醫者の義務だと思う

またこうやつて子供を授かる夫婦にとつては五〇パーセントだけは自分たちの子であるから、全く他人の子である養子よりははるかに合理的だといえる。ただこの非配偶者間の人工授精については社會的にいろいろ異論があると考えたので、あらかじめ法律家の意見もきいたが決して違法ではないというので確信をもつて實驗に着手した

對日策に意見分裂
英、米國の方針を嫌う

【ロンドン發】英米兩國の極東に對する根本的な政策に就いて意見の相異があり、特に日本に對して英國は米國のやり方に懸念を抱いていると消息筋では次の事項をあげている

(一)支那の投資額三億二千万ポンドを救うため英國は速かなる中共政府の承認を欲している 中共はソ連が容易に供給し得ない機械類、裝備及び道具を外國から購入しなければならない、という英國側の主張に對し、米國は中共が既存の條約を嚴守するという約束を得ない限り、中共政府の承認は一時見合すべしという見解を持つている

(二)英國は日本に對する米國のやり方を嫌つている。日本が今に極東の貿易市場に大きな競爭相手となり、英國の生産すると同様に日本は綿製品機械製造を主要産業とし、英國に比し生産費は安いという脅威もあるとしている。しかし米國は一日も早く日本が自給自足し、日本占領の重荷から解放されようとしているのである

社説
全加市協大會と資金募集運動

今週金曜日から四日間に亘りレスブリッヂに於て全加日系市協の第三回全國大會が開かれ、市協今後の政策とプログラムが討議決定され、それに引續き各地に於て市協の活動資金募集運動が行われる。

市協が組織されて以來過去二ケ年間に達成して來た事蹟や、これからも續けて行かなければならぬ仕事等に就ては既に全加市協からニューカナデアンに發表されたところであり、その存續の必要性と、その活動にまつて解決して行かなければならぬ重要問題がまだ/\多く殘されていることとは、改めて指摘するまでもないことである。そして市協こそは日系カナダ人全般の福祉のために活動し得る唯一の團體であり、日系人をも含めた少數者群の利益擁護のために働き得る最も力強きトリデであつて、吾々が此の種の代表機關を持たねばならぬことは全米市協の正岡マイク氏も強調したところである。

人々の中には、自己の場合のみを考えて「日系人團体」の必要を感じない向きもあるであろうが、それは餘りにも自己中心的な考え方であつて、たとえ十分にカナダ化した生活にとけ込み滿足している人であつても、社會の情勢は今尚それを保障する機關を必要としている、殊にも市協のような團体の活動を必要とする多くの同胞を、互いに助け合う氣持は持つべきである。

私たちは、市協大會の成果に深き關心を持つと共に、市協の資金募集運動に對して、人々が「同胞を互いに助け合う」という氣持を發揮して、擧つてこれを支持し、充分なる活動資金を醵出して、日系人全般のために市協の活動を可能ならしめるよう協力されることを切望したい。

日本輸出品の最低値段撤廢

日本輸出品の投げ賣り防止のために實施されていた輸出品の最低値段制は十月二十八日のマカーサー司令部の發表で撤廢されたが、右に關してカナダの輸入業者は「餘り影響はない」として次の如く述べてる

△晩市の輸入業者——日本の輸出品に對する最低値段が撤廢されたとて安値の日本品が市場にはんらんするとは豫期しない。日本でも賃銀と生産費が上つているので戰前のような安い品物を造るのは困難な事情にあるからだ

△トロントの輸入業者——日本品の流入はごく僅かで、昔のように安物の日本品が店頭にあふれるような事は先ずあるまい。日本でも勞働組合の發達で賃銀と生活標準が向上して生産費が高くなつているからであり、日本政府が輸出品に補助を與えぬ限り大した輸出も見られぬであろう

Lineups Confusing as Players Switch Teams

Hockey is slated to get into action on Nov. 26 as a new blank leaf comes into view with Winter Sports as its heading, the names of summer sports champions having been duly inscribed into the Book of Nisei Sport.

From what came out of the initial meeting of the TNHL, the league will undergo an almost complete face lifting. Only Danforth Cleaners of the seven clubs last season is sure to come back intact, together with the new entry, the Nisei Flyers.

The Flyers are composed of players around 17 years old who made such a fine showing in the regular season of the Toronto Hockey League, winding up in the semi-finals of the midget section. The boys having gained a year, will try their luck in the Juvenile class this year.

CHAMPS BROKEN

Champs St. F. X. are badly broken up as their "kid line" of Frank Ueda, Kaz Ishii and Dave Yonemitsu, their stellar goalie Ronnie Tsuji and ace defenseman Joe Wani now shift over to the Flyers. To make matters worse, Jim and Bert Nasu are said to be turning out with the Cleanermen, while hard working centreman Shogo Takeuchi is still undecided as to whom he will turn out for. New manager Yonemitsu takes over a big headache when manager Sakura stepped down.

Homestead Restaurant always a threat in the league, will have to plug up a big hole when their "kid line" of Paul Tokiwa, Roy Kobayashi and Ben Mori with Gordie Mori and Ronnie Nakamura left for the Flyers. They are said to have signed up a couple of experienced pucksters from Alberta.

Rovers will be trying hard to keep in the race although their "Mr. Zero" Bob Ohashi retired as did their coach and all-round player, Jeep Inamoto. Some of their ace performers are said to be more interested in the hoopla game than in chasing pucks. Manager Fred Miyasaki is in a desperate hunt to find a replacement for Ohashi.

TNT, ROCKETS HIT

TNT and Rockets are both very uncertain though signifying that they intend to carry on. TNT's most effective forward, Aki Kahara, is rumored to be Danforth bound, while promising rookie Rocketmen, Ray Sora and Ed Hisaki, are lost to the Flyers.

The Bums are said to be retiring from the picture if the league continues to operate so late in the night. If the Bums do drop out there will be a big rush to sign up Maw Mori, the Bums' best player and one of the league's best performers.

By the time the whole thing is unscrambled, the league will probably wind up with five teams which in any case, should furnish better competition.

ICE DIFFICULTIES

Past prexy Matt Matsui, secretary Yuki Onizuka and treasurer Jon Onodera will be on duty until a general meeting of the league is held. The harrowing experience of the past season when the league almost folded because of lack of outdoor ice still inkling in their minds, the league decided once more to call 1 a.m. on Saturday mornings at the Varsity Arena to be their stamping grounds. Team practices will commence this Saturday. All new players desiring to catch on with any of the teams are asked to phone Matt Matsui at MI. 9638.

Secretary Onizuka has been working hard on a league constitution to be presented for approval at the general meeting. Another new innovation will be a player certificate which must be signed by the players and the managers. Ichi Noguchi who did such a fine job of the presentation dance, has been appointed dance chairman of the opening dance tentatively set at Nov. 19th. Dan Hashimoto of the St. F.X. is in charge of the hall arrangements with Nisei Flyers helping out at the dance.

Hamilton Hockey Loop Opens '49-50 Season

HAMILTON. — The Hamilton Nisei Hockey League officially opened the new season at the Barton Street Arena on Oct. 20 with a large turnout of hockey enthusiasts.

A successful season is very evident with the new executive group consisting of George Uchida, president; Mush Arima, secretary; Sammy Sonoda, treasurer.

A meeting of the HNHL will be held at the Hamilton Buddhist Church, 44 Strachan St., on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 7 p.m. All persons interested are asked to attend as the formation of teams will be discussed. They are also asked to bring their fees for the year.

Yamada's Overtake Urabe Five-Pinners

Five pin bowling in Toronto is dominated by Yamada Studios and Urabe Insurance who share top place in the Nisei Bowling League.

On Oct. 28, at the Spadina Bowling Academy, Star Cleaners and Danforth Cleaners swept their games from Urabe Insurance and Team Nine. Yamada Studios beat Variety Grill, Best Cleaners topped Sora Constructions, Takeda Insurance rapped Freedman's, OK Cleaners took Queen City with the score 5-2.

S. Ono racked up the high triple of 736-257, M. Matsumoto 725-264, J. Izumi 714-260, M. Isoshima 712-263, and M. Mori 698-255 were other high bowlers.

Stratocruiser To Fly Canaries From Japan

YOKOHAMA. — One thousand Japanese canaries will be flown across the Pacific in the Pan American Airways Stratocruiser reopening the export market that Japan hopes to expand into a big dollar earner.

The shipment in the first regularly scheduled run of the new double-decked clipper service linking Japan and the West Coast will be the first of eight or nine 1000-bird lots to be imported by the Oldenwald Bird Co. of New York before the end of the year.

A Preview:

"TOKYO JOE" IS GOOD COPS AND ROBBERS FARE

SESSUE HAYAKAWA MANY many years ago used to make females restless with his slick love making. He now comes back a bit heavier, if not more sinister, in "Tokyo Joe".

If it weren't for him, Humphrey Bogart would be alive today.

Bogart is owner of a Tokyo night-club, off-limits to Occupation soldiers and Pandas, who returns to Tokyo after the war. He immediately is mixed up with the evil Baron Kimura which everyone including Bogart, knows will lead to no good. But Bogart is stuck on a deal with the Baron because the Baron has a document that is proof-positive that Trina, Bogart's former wife (whom he still loves), pulled a Tokyo Rose during the war.

Trina is innocent but the Baron has a document and so the upper hand. With this is a situation that calls from unrequited love (by Bogart) to a patriotic sacrifice "beyond the call of duty" (also by Bogart). The Baron, wicked soul, gets his just dues from the tommy-gun of an Occupation soldier. However, since Trina had married a second time happily to an American officer and Bogart, still in love with her is threatening to break up the blissful domesticity, it is simpler to have Bogart shot and removed from the scene. So at the end, we know that Bogart is not to be with us long as his bullet-punctured body is carried out. But as he was shot in the most heroic of circumstances our memories of him shall be tender and dear.

THE PICTURE HAS the slickly quality of a Sat. Eve Post story, well paced and absorbing for people who do not expect much more than an hour of easy-to-grasp non mental entertainment. It's good cops and robber stuff, at times on an exciting level.

The Nisei accents in the Japanese spoken by some in the smaller parts will never be approved in Japan. The Japanese character is still the oriental stoic, with all watching done out of the corner of eyes. At a children's party "London Bridge is Falling Down" is played on a samisen.

Playing in the film are Humphrey Bogart, Alexander Knox, Florence Marly, Sessue Hayakawa, Howard Kumagai, Teru Shimada, Karie Shindo, Kyoko Kamo and others familiar in face to First and San Pedro Streets.

—CROSSROADS

Editor's Note: "Tokyo Joe" will be released in Canada for showing sometimes early next year, probably in February.

Nisei In Road Company Of 'High Button Shoes'

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Another Nisei is on the threshold of a career in show business. Jack Shimada, youthful terpsichorean, is now appearing with the road cast of "High Button Shoes".

Jack dances in the chorus and also does one ... number with a feminine member of the cast.

Resignations

In a telephone call yesterday morning, Jack Oki told The New Canadian that he and Roger Obata had resigned from the Executive Committee of the National JCCA over disagreement with the policies adopted by the Executive Committee in regards to certain major issues.

The most important issues on which they disagreed were the policy on evacuation losses claims and the financial policy of the organization, specifically the setup of the trust fund on special donations and the appointment of its trustees.

Mr. Oki said they have sent a complete report to the National Conference and that it will quite likely be discussed at the Conference which opens in Lethbridge on Nov. 4.

Status Of Women Improved In Japan

TOKYO. — Japanese woman have gone overboard for democracy after the end of the war. The older generation may be the same but with the younger generation most of whom have married after the war's end, things are radically different.

Many women have now advanced into the political, economic, social and art fields. There are a number of women Diet members with several women in influential Government posts. In the theatrical world, women are the main drawing cards with numerous starlets coming into their own after the war. Many girls are going into universities along with the men.

The work of the housewife has improved compared with two or three years ago. She no longer has to buy from blackmarket dealers but has most of her official ration delivered to her door. Electricity though rationed is sufficient while gas is now available.

The average young woman is better dressed, better made-up and has a better figure than her pre-war contemporaries.
